The topic of Estonian presentation

Ingmar Vali, Department Head Centre of Registers and Information Systems, Estonia - ‘e-government in Estonia’

The topic of the presentation is Government interoperability, sharing & reuse of land information with the goal to build sustainable, affordable and smart services. The latest on e-services in Estonia, the recent developments in cadastre and land registry (service to the citizens and business).

Sharing and reuse is an interoperability booster. It increases digital collaboration with entails better service quality at lower cost.