Data Provision from Cadastre and Land Registry Databases

Questionnaire: results

Joint Conference of PCC, EuroGeographics CLRKEN and EULIS
17 – 18 November 2016, Bratislava
Matúš Fojtl
1a) In connection with the G8 Open Data Charter do you provide cadastral and land registry data to anyone?

- Cadastral data:
  - Yes: 65%
  - No: 35%

- LR data:
  - Yes: 54%
  - No: 46%
1b) If yes, is it possible for the one who obtains the data to modify and subsequently redistribute or resell these data without any limitations to third parties?

- Yes: 24%
- No: 76%
1c) If yes, does the seller/distributor need to obtain consent of the persons concerned (property owners or other entitled persons)?

- Yes: 12%
- No: 88%
2a) Do you think that the provision of information on individual person’s properties located within the whole territory of your country should be regulated by EU legislation?

- Yes: 20%
- No: 80%
2b) In your country is the information on individual person’s properties located within the whole territory of the country provided only to the owner and to state administrative and judiciary authorities for carrying out their legal tasks?

- Yes: 38%
- No: 62%
2c) If not, is it provided freely to anyone?

- Yes: 33%
- No: 67%
3a) According to your national legislation, can private IT companies buy in bulk personal data on individuals (property owners and other entitled persons) from the cadastre and/or land registry authorities?

- Yes: 23%
- No: 77%
3b) If yes, are there any limitations in place when buying personal data?

- Regulations for personal data protection
- Without personal ID number
3c) If yes to question 3a) do they need to obtain consent of the persons concerned (property owners or other entitled persons) if they want to sell the data to third parties?

No
100%
4a) If a property owner has a mortgage, do you provide this information?

- Yes: 79%
- No: 21%
4b) If yes, does the information say who provided the relevant mortgage?

- Yes: 90%
- No: 10%
5a) In your country, is all cadastral and land registry data publicly available without any limitation?

- Yes: 27%
- No: 73%
5b) If not, provision of what data is limited, and how?

- Personal data
- Only to registered owners and state administration
- Interested persons must identify themselves
- Data is not free of charge
- Data modification is forbidden
- Contracts, property values
- Bulk information is not allowed
Thank you for your attention